

ABOUT APABA-TB

The Asian Pacific American Bar Association of Tampa Bay (“APABA-TB”) is a voluntary bar association of legal professionals who serve the Greater Tampa Bay area, and membership is open to all. APABA-TB supports and promotes its members through its many networking and social activities, as well as its solid referral network. APABA-TB is an affiliate member of the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association (“NAPABA”) which represents over 50,000 attorneys, judges, and law students across the country and in Canada.

ABOUT NAAAP TPA

The National Association of Asian American Professionals Tampa Bay Chapter (NAAAP TPA) is an all-volunteer, Pan-Asian American professional organization that promotes the career advancement and leadership development of Asian American professionals in all fields through networking, promoting Asian multiculturalism, and supporting diversity and community service. As part of a national organization, NAAAP is the largest and fastest growing Asian American professional organization in the U.S. and Canada. Through its business units, members can participate in activities that bring together other Asian American professionals in community service, professional development and networking opportunities.

The banner features a row of six headshots of diverse professionals. To the left is the APABA logo, and to the right is the NAAAP logo with the text "National Association of Asian American Professionals Tampa Bay". Below the photos, the text reads: "Asian American Legal Forum" in a large, red, cursive font; "Thursday, October 24th 6pm-8pm" in a black sans-serif font; and "Racial Discrimination & Other Landmines In The Workplace" and "Investing In & For Yourself As A Professional" in a smaller black sans-serif font. The background is a grayscale image of a city skyline.
